Monday 26th September

Collage Workshop with Margo Vigoritor

Learn to create exiting works images from magazines, newspapers and other soft objects.

Working on high quality card, students will be guided to build a composition incorporating all the elements of design. The workshop will explore the use of pictures and graphics in a modern contemporary scenario.

Each participant will be encouraged to think outside the square to create a unique piece of work.

Paint All you Want – Open painting session.

Parents are asked to stay with children for this session of painting all you want. This session is untutored and student can paint as much as they want for only $10

Fun with Poetry

Join Jenni Ivins, children's author and poet, as she introduces you to writing skills and idea gathering to create a finished poem.

Poetry in pictures, poetry in sounds, learn techniques in line and form. The Arts, in rounds, abounds $30 per student.

Tuesday 27th September

Drawing a Face

This class introduces you to the basic rules about how to draw a face. Learn where the ears, eyes, nose and mouth are placed and how to achieve the right shapes. Paper and charcoal supplied $30

Growing Grassy Critters with Danella Draper

Make a living sculpture using grass. Participants will use stockings filled with soil and grass seed to sculpt shapes of creatures. Regularly given light and water their critters will spring to life and grow in no time at all! All materials supplied $30.

Scratch and Patch - Alia and Jade Lees-Pavey

Enjoy a morning of learning how to make your own scratch patch, with items that are easily accessible. Bring along a line drawing that you would like to work from and draw / scratch away to create a great artwork. $30

SCHOOL HOLIDAY ART

Objective:

These two hour workshops are offered to young artists during the school holidays to assist in developing their basic visual art skills. The desired outcome is for students to gain confidence and feel positive about their artistic abilities.
